

self to Capt. J. J. L. Parratt's company of Artillery, & affiant remained with said company until it was disbanded. And affiant subsequently entered Capt. R. M. Colman's Company, & served in said company from the 5th to the 10th day of December 1835 until the surrender of Gen. Cos. to Col. Frank Johnson, in the city of San Antonio de Bexar, in which city affiant's said Colman's company was then stationed. And affiant further says that he again entered said Army of the Republic of Texas, in the year of 1836, during the month of March.
After the fall of the Alamo, while with said army at Velasco, he was appointed commissary, by Col. W. D. L. Hall, Commissary-General, and as such proceeded to Galveston, where affiant remained until the day of April, 1836 when in consequence of ill health leave of absence was granted him, to go to Velasco, at which place he was on the day of appointed Chief Clerk of the war Department.

Charles Neasey

Sworn & subscribed to before me this 19th day of December 1870.

J. M. Brockmire, Deputy J. K. S. S. S. S.